DESCRIPTION

2024 GMC Canyon AT4X | Sunroof | Off Road Ready | Remote Start |

The 2024 GMC Canyon AT4X is a serious midsize 4WD truck built for drivers who want off-road capability without moving up to a full-size pickup. This specific Canyon has 33,589 km, a 2.7L turbocharged 4-cylinder engine producing 310 horsepower, an 8-speed automatic transmission and four-wheel drive. Finished in Black, the AT4X brings together GMCs upscale interior features with hardware designed for more demanding terrain. The AT4X is especially well suited to buyers looking for a truck that can handle daily driving, towing and weekend adventures. Its 4WD system, off-road suspension, off-road tires, limited-slip differential and front tow hooks give it the capability to go beyond the pavement, while features such as leather seating, heated seats, power-adjustable seating, dual-zone climate control and a power sunroof add everyday comfort.
